Finally, at the instance of his son, Abu Nasr al-Hasan, he combined the contents of both in a third and more abridged work,—the present one. A Collection of Shi'ah Traditions on the universal knowledge, divine right, and spiritual powers of the Holy Imams, entitled آميده وما خصهم الله بها بعائر الدرجات (في علوم آل and ascribed to Muhamkan B. AL-HASAN AL-SAFFÂB (Abu Ja'far Kummi, d. A.H. 290). See Tûsi, p. 184.

The work is divided into chapters (باب), each headed by a brief sketch of its contents.

The Imâms are always spoken of collectively (عليهم السلام), and the work vindicates the boldest Shi and doctrines regarding them. Its chief authorities are 'Alî, Abu Ja'far (Muhammad Bâķir), and Abu 'Abu allah (Ja'far Ṣâdik) themselves. The connexion of the Isnâds with the compiler is generally not expressed.

الجزؤ الأول من كتاب بصائر الدرجات : Beginning البرق الأول من كتاب بصائر الدرجات : الله فريضة على الناس محمد بن الحسن المعروف بمهزلة (sio) عن ابرهيم بن هاشم عن الحسن بن يزيد (زيد .r) بن على بن الحسين عن ابيه عن ابى عبد الله عليهم السلام قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله طلب العلم فريضة على كل مسلم .

In four separate parts (*; -). Part II. begins on fol. 94; III. on fol. 186; IV. on fol. 250. Well written, the titles in gold, and the names of the authorities in red. Gold lines round the pages. An ornament at the beginning.

Foll. 64-77 should be placed between foll. 190 and 191, in the following order: 64, 66-77, 65.

Fol. 302 contains extracts from the الأنوار, and from the of Muhammad b. al-Hasan al-Hurr, in which the present work, and another one with the same title, by Sa'd b. 'Abdallah,' and also an abstract of the latter by Hasan b. Sulaiman, are noticed. There probably exists some relation between the two books. To conclude from the evidence of Tust before mentioned, the present work might be considered an augmented edition of the original work of Sa'd. This would also account for the strange introduction of the Isnâds noticed above.

² He died about A.H. 300. His work is also mentioned by Tûsî, p. 10°, 1. 9, and described as being divided into four parts. Cf. Fibrist of Ibn al-Nadîm, ed. Flügel, p. r*r*, where the same work is called تصدير الدرجات.

(d. A.H. 328). See on it and on the author, Tûst, p. "r"; Ibn al-Athir, ed. Tornberg, viii. p. rv"; Liber as-Sojutii de nomin. relat., ed. Veth, p. rr; Sprenger, Life of Mohammad, p. 68. Copies are rare in Europe. A few extracts from the work are to be found in Cat. Mus. Brit., p. 452, vi., and a commentary on it in De Jong, Cat. Bibl. Acad. Reg. Scient., p. 174.

The preface begins: لحمد لله المحمود لنعمته المحبود. The work is divided into twenty-nine or thirty books, according to the subjects. Their order in the present copy differs from the list of Tûst. Besides, some portions are in a strange state of confusion, of which the owner of this copy must have been conscious, and which he tried to conceal by spoiling the text at the end and at the beginning of several books with ornaments. Owing to the identity of their first words, foll. 287 sqq. and 555 sqq. have been misplaced, but they cannot be re-arranged properly, in the present condition of the MS. The only way of making the whole run coherently is to break the connexion of كتاب الحرم (foll. 474 and 475). Then the books would stand in the following order:

II. (fol. 22v.) التوحيد (fol. 22v.); التوحيد (fol. 45); III. (fol. 45), containing the Shi ah dootrines on the Imâmate; IV. (fol. 155) والكفر (fol. 251v.); V. (fol. 251v.); VII. An account of the various controversies between the twelve Imams and their opponents, according to the Shi'ah tradition. It is in all probability the of Abu 'Ali al-Fadl b. al-Hasan Tadarst (d. A.H. 542).

Although, as a rule, the Isnâds are omitted, yet that leading up to the eleventh Imâm, al-Hasan 'Askari, is given at full length at the beginning of the work (fol. 20.). It runs hus: العالم المعشى المرعشى العالم المعلى المراكبة الله جعفر بن احمد الدوريستى رحة قال حدثنى ابى محمد بن احمد قال حدثنى الشيخ السعيد ابو جعفر محمد بن على بن العسين بن بابرية القمى رضة قال حدثنى ابو العسن بن محمد القسم الاسترابادى المفسر قال حدثنى ابو العسن بن محمد القسم الاسترابادى المفسر قال حدثنى ابو يعقوب يوسف بن محمد بن زياد وابو قال حدثنا ابو محمد العسن بن على العسكرى عليهما قالا حدثنا ابو محمد العسن بن على العسكرى عليهما السلام.

Another Isnâd connects the author with Abu Ja'far Tûsî (d. A.H. 460), in the following way (fol. 25%): حدثنى السيد العالم العابد ابو جعفر مهدى بن ابى حرب العسنى (sic) رضة قال اخبرنا الشيخ ابى جعفر محمد بن العسن الطوسى رضة قال اخبرنا الشيخ السعيد الوالد ابو جعفر قدس الله روحة.

The author complains of the slackening spirit of his sect. He quotes, by way of introduction, what is said in favour of religious contention in the Koran, to which he subjoins an account of the various disputes of the Prophet with idolaters, Jews, and Christians. He then proceeds to relate at great length the claims and arguments of 'Ali, and subsequently those of the other Imâms in succession. Each of them is represented as pleading his cause in speeches and disputations, or in letters. The work is accordingly divided into sections (فصل), each of which is inscribed '... خاتجاء '...

A diffuso treatise on the state of the soul after death, inscribed on the title-page: كتاب روم الارواح في The . تحقيق احوال ما بعد الموت والخرة والبرزخ author does not give his name; but as he professes to be a disciple of the famous 1bn Taimiyah Hanbali (d. Kh. v. 88,2 and with this the present treatise appears to be identical. It is based on twenty-one questions, though by mistake only nineteen are counted in the present MS. It was compiled from the tradition and from old authors, e.g. Ibn Abu'l-dunya (d. A.m. 281), is quoted, Muhammad b. Nasr Marwazi (d. A.H. 294), Ibn Hazm, the author of the

The treatise consists of an introduction (مَقَدَّهُ), on the definition of mortal sin, etc., and two parts (بالبال), one (fol. 28) treating of the "internal" or mental sins (الكبائر الطاعرة), and the other (fol. 108) of the "external" sins, or crimes in practise (قالمان). The latter is divided into special chapters, according to the system of the law-books, بالمهارة المعارة , etc. The appendix (الحارة), fol. 436) treats of four subjects: I. of penitence (الكبائر الفاعرة); II. This is a mere compilation from various works on law, rites, and morals, which are frequently quoted. Most of these date from the sixth, seventh, and eighth centuries, though the compiler certainly belongs to a more modern period. The present text is given on the authority of Najm al-din Abu'l-Ḥasan Muḥammad b. al-Ḥasan . . . 'Alawi Basain', who had it from Abu 'Abdallah Muḥammad b. Ahmad b. Shahriyar, guardian of the mausoleum of the Khalif 'All,' in Rabl' I., 516, etc. The Isnad goes back to Mutawakkil, who gives the following account of the origin of the book. He was returning to Khurasan from the pilgrimage, when he met with Yahya b. Zaid b. 'Alt, and received from him a copy of these prayers, on the authority of his father, Zaid the Martyr. Subsequently, after Yahya had been killed (A.H. 126), he went again to Madinah, where he showed his copy to Ja'far Sadik, who found it identical with a book in his possession, which had been written by his father, Muhammad b. 'Alt. From this Mutawakkil took a copy, Ja'far himself dictating. The book consisted originally of seventy-five chapters, but eleven were lost by him, so that he only kept some sixty chapters (بحفظت منه المقادمة المناس ال

With the exception of the last statement, the same story is given with another Isnad, which, in Ibn Muţahhar, joins that of Tûsî (l.c.). According to this version, the book contained only fifty-four prayers, 1531. Size 101 in. by 61 in.; foll. 236. Fourteen lines in a page.

A Shi'ah book on religious duties, especially prayer, imperfect at the beginning. It appears from quotations of other works that the author is Abu Ja'fan Tûsî (Muhammad b. al-Ḥasan, d. a.n. 460). It is very probably his كتاب الحل والعقد في العبادات, mentioned in his own Fibrist, p. rai, l. 18.

Begins: منته فرایت ان اختصر ذلک اجمع منه . The first paragraph, which is inscribed بستقلها العامل بها الخ و عبادات الشرع gives an outline of the present work. The five principal duties of the Shi'ites are prayer, almsgiving, fasting, pilgrimage, and holy war. The author begins with prayer, as that duty which is to be performed every day, and treats of it circumstantially in a separate part, and treats of it circumstantially in a separate part, عبادات اليرم والليكة. This part is introduced by a treatise on ablution and other preparations for prayer.

The second part (fol. 100s.), imit appears briefly of the remaining duties, according to their occurrence in the course of the year. It begins with Ramadân, the time for fasting, and concludes with Rajab. The rites of the pilgrimage are mentioned under Dhu'l-hijjah.

Then follow those duties which are not connected with a particular time (fol. 2090.), المن فصل في ذكر ما لا . They are either resonal, as العمروف and الجهال , or pecuniary, as الزكاة . They are only rapidly surveyed, and reference is made for the former to the author's النهاية and for the latter, to his المصاحة .

The work concludes (fol. 213v.) with three sets of prayers, recommended for special times, viz. morning and evening prayers, prayers for each day of the week, and such for the twelve hours of the day. For particulars the author refers to his _______.

Their names are, Abu 'Ali al-Ḥasan b. Muḥammad b. 'Ali Tûsî, Abu'l-wafâ 'Abd al-jabbâr . Râzî, Najm al-dîn Abu'l-Fadl unsound traditions and placets of Mujtahids which were contrary to the "Catholic" faith and to the doctrines of the Imams.

The names of both authors are unknown; but the time of the second is fairly defined by his dedication of this work to Sultan 'Abdallah Kuth Shah (of Golcondah, who reigned from A.H. 1020 to 1082); while the first mentions in a passage quoted on fol. 8v., that his last Shaikh was Mîrzâ Muhammad Astarâbâdî, whose lectures he attended between A.H. 1015 and 1020, at Makkah. The same speaks of his studies and of his present task as follows (fol. 1v.): اني بعد ما قرات الاصولين على معظم اصحابهما واستفدت حقائقهما ودقائقهما من كمل (vic) اربابهما وتحملت الاحاديث المنقولة عن العترة الطاهرة عليهم السلام من جل رواتها العارفين لحقائقها الواصلين الي دتائقها واحذت علم الفقه من افواه جماعة من فقها اصحابنا عرضت على تلك الاحاديث قواعد الاصولين المسطورة في كتب اصول المخاصة وكتب العاسة والمسائل الاجتهادية الفقهية نوجدتهما في مواضع لا تعد ولاتحصى مخالفتين لمتواتراتها فصرفت عمرى دهرا طويلا في المدينة المنورة على مشرقها افضل الصلوة والسلار في تنقيم تلك الحاديث وتحقيقها حتى فتم على أبواب الحق النز. The refutation by the second author begins: لله حدا يليق بجلاله . . . وبعد فاقول أن الباعث على التعرض لكلام هذا الفاضل في المؤلِّف الذي وسمه بالفوائد المدنية الن

He says that he was chiefly offended with the self-conceit and the rude polemics of his predecessor, though he is not willing to follow his bad example, in depreciating the real merits of his work. His object, therefore, is only to defend the divines of the later church, such as Hill and others, against his exaggerations and false imputations.

The passages selected for refutation are given at full length, under the heading اقرن ; and they are followed by the refutation, which is introduced by ...

The author says in his short preface that the chief object of the present treatise is to prove the existence of God and his attributes. He refers to the system of the Scholastics, and to that of the earlier Philosophers; he points out the differences between the two sects, and decides, of course, in favour of the Sht'ah.

VI. Foll. 106-130. كتاب معارج الفهم . A Commentary, by the same author, on a similar work of his, called نظم البراهين في اصول الدين . Cf. Bibl. Sprenger. 576.

Beginning: بعونك يا لطيف الحمد لله على ما اولانا. The author says that he composed the first work as an introduction to scholastic theology. But finding it, from its extremo conciseness, too obscure for most readers, he added the present short commentary.

The text and commentary are distinguished by العمد لله الواحد في ... وبعد فهذه رسالة في علم الكلام تشتمل على فاته ... وبعد فهذه رسالة في علم الكلام تشتمل على ماته ... وبعد فهذه رسالة في علم الكلام تشتمل على and is divided into seven chapters: I. في النظر .! VII. Foll. 131-169. كتاب ارشاد الطالبين. A copious Commentary on a similar work. The title of the latter is not mentioned, but it appears from quotations in the commentary that it is also by Hills.

The name of the commentator is not given. He quotes the opinions of the Mu'tazilites, and Ash'ari; the Scholastics; the Philosophers, especially Ibn Sina and Tusi; and the doctrines of his own sect, the Imamiyah.

The text and the commentary are distinguished by and اقول. The work begins without a preface:

IX. Foll. 258-267. كتاب التعبي, A treatise in refutation of erroneous opinions entertained regarding the Imâmate. The author, who is not mentioned by name, lived in the fifth century.

The preface begins: واعطيت على ما انعبت اللهم انا تحمدت على ما انعبت واسديت واسديت واسديت واسديت والله الله والله والله

X. Foll. 268-282. كتاب نفحات اللاهوت.

A polemical treatise, in which is proved that it is lawful to curse the Sunnites like unbelievers. It is fully entitled نفحات اللاهوت في لعن الجبت والطاغوت . The author is 'Arf B. 'Abd Al-'Âri (معبد العالي), who completed it in Dhu'l-hijjah, 917, at Mashhad (بمشهد مولاى ومولى الثقلين الامام المرتضى على موسى), and dedicated it to (Shâh Ismâ'll) the founder of the Safawi dynasty. Another work of this author is to be found in Cat. Lugd. iv. 116.

Beginning: والشهادة السموات والارض عالم الغيب خطفون الشهادة الت تحكم بين عبادت فيما كانوا فيه يخطفون الدولة القاهرة المدينة المدينة العالية السامية العلية العلوية الباهرة الشريفة المدينة العالية السامية العلوية المورية ال

The work consists of an introduction (مَعَدُمَة), on the meaning of cursing, and of seven sections, which contain arguments in support of the above assertion. Five of them refer to passages of the Koran, one to the Sunnah, and the seventh to the Shi'ah (Imamiyah) tradition.

Imâmate, in terms of astonishment (العامة أورد الشيخ رضى الله عنه على طريق التعجب). His friend, therefore, desired him to write, in the same style, a special and detailed treatise on that subject. Accordingly, he gives a series of discussions, all introduced by the words روس عجيب أمرهم and subdivided according to the subjects into sections, which are usually inscribed . . فصل في أغلطهم في . The above title does not occur in the work. The author scarcely quotes any authorities, but he mentions once (fol. 263v.) that he was told by Kâdi Abu'l-Hasan Asad b. Ibrâhîm Sulamî, that he met Ibn al-Naḥḥâs (d. А.н. 376), nt Miṣr, etc.

The appendix (خاتمة) comprises two discussions, one regarding 'A'ishah, and whether she deserves to be cursed, the other treating of the diverging principles of the law of the two sects.

XI. Foll. 283-316. كتاب كشف البراهيري. A treatise on the Leading Dogmas of Islâm, entitled زاد المسافرين with a copious Commentary on it, both , with a copious by Muhammad b. 'Alî b. Ibrâhîm b. Hasan b. Ibrâhîm b. Fâdil Іви Ави лимийв Ацза̂wî (أفحساوى, sic, г. ns in the following piece).1

ان اولى ما صُرفت فيه القوى : The preface begins The author gives in it a circum. وتوجهت اليه الهمم stantial account of the origin of both works. He states, first, that he had already written several other works on theology (specified in a note on the margin as کتاب الفكر, معين الغين, etc.). He then proceeds to relate that, A.H. 877, he made the pilgrimage to Makkah, and after it visited ليلي (i.e. Madinah, according to a marginal note). He then went into Trak, and visited the tombs of the Imams there, and finally travelled into Khurâsân, in order to pay his devotions to the tomb of 'Alî Rida, at Mashhad. On his way thither he commenced the treatise زاد السافرين, at the request of a travelling companion, and completed it after his arrival at Mashhad. Having subsequently made there the acquaintance of a distinguished Saiyid and descendant of 'Ali Rida, named Ghiyath al-din Muhsin b. Muhammad, he was induced by him to write a commentary on the said treatise. He completed this commentary, as we learn from the conclusion, on Wednesday, 17th Dhu'l-hijjah, 878, at the mansion of the Saiyid.

The original text and the commentary are distinguished by اقول and اقول, and the former is given in full. It begins: الحمد لله المتفرد بوجوب الوجود ... وبعد فهذه رسالة مشتملة على ما يجب على المكلف اعتقاده من العقائد الكلامية والمسائل الاصولية and is divided into seven sections (فصل): I. (fol. 284v.) في الصفات (.fol. 2870) : في اثبات واجب الوجود IV. (fol. 291) ; الشبية (IV. (fol. 291) ; الثبوتية : في النبوة (Fol. 299e) ; في الافعال المنسوبة اليه (195v)

XIV. Foll 832-878. كتاب شرح تجريد . A Commentary on Nastr al-dtn Tust's (d. A.H. 672) تجريد (see no. 405). The author is not named; there is, however, no doubt that it is the commentary of IBN AL-MUTAHHAR HILLI (Hasan b. Yûsuf, d. A.H. 726) mentioned in H. Kh. ii. 194. It is true, the first words quoted there do not agree with this MS., which begins: الحمد لله القاهر سلطانه العظم (العظيم r.) شانه ; but the words following here subsequently, اما بعد إلى العارف قال (? فان r.) كمال الانسان انما هو بحصول المعارف للهية المخ , seem to bear some relation to them. There are probably two different versions of the preface.

The author styles the work of Tust الاعتقاد مرجريد الاعتقاد شرح شجريد (it is, however, mentioned by him in his الاعتقاد كشف المراد في under the fuller title كشف المراد في He was a disciple of Tust, and completed this commentary on 16th Rabi' I., 696.

Some portions have copious marginal notes. The margin exceeds the size of the volume, and is generally folded down, but in some cases out away.

XV. Foll. 379-388. حاشيه شرح جديد التجريد Glosses on that part of Kushji's Commentary on the Tajrtd' which comprises the fifth مقصد, on the Imâniate; by Nor Allan b. Sharif Imâni Husaini.

امام كل امر ذى بال وامام كل كلام ومقال : Begins: 'حد من اقام الامام لطفا على الانام.

The author observed that the criticisms of Kûshjî, a Sunnite, on the tenets professed in the said part of the Tajrid, had not yet been answered by writers of the Shi'ah sect; he, therefore, undertook this task, lest the opposite party should have the last word in the matter. He seems to have written in India, when the Muhammadan kings of the Dakhan were still in power. This would appear from the following remark on fol. 380: وايضا يجوز أن يتولى الدنيا اثنين (610) أو أزيد يتقارب كل منهم في القوة بحيث يمسك كل عن الآخر كما يشاهد (sio) الحال من حال السلاطين المجتمعة في ارض الدكر. . من سواد الهند. He quotes occasionally a work of his father, namely a Persian commentary on abel an alleged speech of 'Ali,' and also a supplement to it (تكملة), in which Mirkhond's (d. A.H. 903) is quoted (fol. 381v.).

The first gloss is: قوله ورياسة عامة في امر الدين (= fol. 323 in no. 409).

There follows immediately:

An account of three disputations (ישליה) which the author, a Shi'ite, had with one Molla Harawi, on differences of the two sects. The name of the author is, as appears from the opening of the first meeting, Muhamman, from ולכשוי, properly ולכשוי, al-Aḥsâ, in Baḥrain, and he is evidently identical with Muḥammad b. 'Ali b. . . . Abu'l-jumbûr, the author of XI. The present treatise seems to be the same as Cat. Mus. Brit. 403, xxxiii.

قال الشيخ حصل بينى وبين الهروى ملاقات : Begins فجادلت معه فى ثلث مجالس المجلس الاول قال كان فى دار السيد السند يوم الضيافة الخ.

It appears that the meetings took place at Mashhad, where the author lived with Saiyid Muhsin, the same whom he mentions in the preface of XI., where he describes his journey to Mashhad, A.R. 878. The first and third meetings took place in the mansion of the said Saiyid, the second on the مرم ألميد, or 10th Dhu'lhijjah, in the Academy of Sultan Shâhrukh Mìrzâ. The altercation chiefly turned on the Imâmate and the Chalifate, and concluded with the defeat of the opponent, who, as the author asserts, had at last almost made up his mind to become a Shî'ah.

(d. A.H. 413; of. Tûsî, p. rif), extracted from two works, viz., the written record of his lectures and disputations (مجالس), and his العبون والمجاس (mentioned by Tûsî, p. rie). The compiler, who does not give his name, made this selection for the use of a friend. It would appear that he was a contemporary of Muſid, and that the latter was still alive, when this selection was made. Probably it is the work of Abu Jaífan Tôsî (d. A.H. 460).

These aphorisms bear on various Sh'ah doctrines and points of controversy, but chiefly on the Imâmate. Musid is usually denoted by الشيخ ايّدة الله

A treatise proving Shi'itism to be the only true creed. It was composed by an unknown author, A.H. 1152. The above title does not occur in the work.

The author demonstrates his thesis from the Koran, from the Sunnah, of which he quotes all the standard works down to Suyûţî, and by argumentation.

الحمد لله . . . اعلم أن هذا الكتاب يشتمل :Begins على مسائل تتعلق بعلم الاصول من التوحيد والعدل

والنبوّة والامامة ومعرفة الثواب والعقاب والالم والاعواض والاجال وما يتعلق بها الخ.

The subjects enumerated are treated of in six chapters, each of which is subdivided into sections (فصل).

The works contained in this volume are generally well written on good stout paper. The handwritings vary, but two prevail. Most of the texts have been collated; however, they are not first-rate as regards correctness. A detailed table of contents is to be found on one of the fly-leaves. It enumerates twenty-six works, the second of which is not in the present volume (see above). Fol. 291v. is ornamented.

A Commentary (معزوي) on the second and third parts, or Physics and Metaphysics, of Athir al-din Mufaddal b. 'Omar Abhart's' (d. A.H. 663) لهداية, by Kamûl al-din Ḥusain b. Mu'in al-din Maisudht' (also called Kêdi Mir). Cf. Ḥ. Kh. vi. 474, Cat. St. Petersb. 208, and Cat. Bodl. ii. 611.

This commentary was printed at Calcutta and at Lakhnau. According to a note at the end of the latter edition, it was composed A.R. 880.

The preface begins: 'وكل شي 'وكل ألله المداية امر من لديه 'وكل شي . The author mentions in it that this is his first work. The first part of the Hiddyah, on Logic, having become disused in his time, he excluded it from his present task. He also omitted those passages which had already been sufficiently explained by earlier commentators.

The two parts (قسم) of the Hiddyah comprised in this commentary are subdivided into the following chapters (قن): Part II. (foll. 5-71): 1. (foll. 6-71): 1. (fol. 6) الطبيعيات, in ten فيما يعم الاجسام في العنصريات (fol. 54) ; فصل in eight في العنصريات (foll. 54) الانهيات . Part III. النهيات (foll. 72-104): 1. في العلم (foll. 72-104): 1. فصل in seven في العلم (foll. 87) , فصل in four في الملائكة (foll. 97») ; فصل To this follows an appendix (خاتمة) fol. 104).

The preface, which is without interest, begins: علم الفقال الفقال الفقال. It is followed by an introduction on philosophy in general. The author of this commentary was a pupil of Mahmûd Fârûkî, of Jaunpûr, of whom he speaks in the following terms (fol. 3): ستفيضا لمآرب المتعادم منها من جناب النفس القدسية التي ليس كمثلها احد في الهند والسند بل في التوران والايران مولانا المحمود (sic) المونفوري مولدا والفاروقي محتدا مولانا المحمود (his) المجونفوري مولدا والفاروقي محتدا الله تع ظله الظليل الخ

Another copy of the preceding Commentary, somewhat varying in the preface; where, for instance, the name and the predicates of Maḥmûd are omitted in the text, and added subsequently in a marginal note (هنه). It has also a different epilogue, which runs as follows: في الممالك المنعام وقد طويت في المملك المنعام وقد طويت المملك المنعام وقد طويت الممالك الشرح ما سنح لى في اثنا الليفة على الآداب الشيدية وافردت له شرحا آخر وسميته بالابحاث الباقية فان اردت العثور عليه فعليك ان الحق كما ترى فيه ما لا ترى ممن ترى ويلوح عليك ان الحق كما ترى. From this it would appear that the present copy represents a later edition of the work. The author states in a marginal note that the epilogue of the preceding no., is the work of 'Abd al-rashid Jaunfūri—الفها مولاناً . . . عبد الرشيد الجونفوري مدّ الله ظله .

Written in Shikastah, with marginal additions by the author (حنه).

The preface begins: اجد الله جد الله جد الله على. The author wrote it during his last illness. He gives in it an account of his work. It was to extend over all the parts of Philosophy, viz., Logic, Physics, and Metaphysics; but only the Physics had been worked out to a certain point, while the other two parts, the third in particular, remained in an unfinished state.

The author disposes at the same time of some materials which he did not use for the present work; namely, discussions regarding the elements (المادة المادة في حديقة الصورة المادة في حديقة الصورة المادة.

The author states that after two earlier compositions, viz. والمجنان ومغتاج الجنان ومغتاج الجنان ومغتاج الجنان ومغتاج الجنان. he compiled the present work from more than seventy books, by order of a prince named Bur-hân al-dluمالتقطا من نيف وسبعين صحيفة مما صنف في اعلا معالم الدين واسنى مراسم اليقين وذلك لخزانة كتب العالى مجلس مولانا وسيدنا صدر صدور العالم اكرم بنى آدم برهان الملة والدين سيف الاسلام والمسلمين ولد الملوك والسلاطين الخ.

A list of the fifty chapters of the work is inserted after the preface. The author, in the introduction, treats of the means of acquiring divine knowledge, and especially of the use of books for this purpose. As to the latter, the author refers to what he has said in earlier treatises, viz. The preface begins: العمد لله منزل العروف العاليات العقصيل اما بعد من محيط الاجمال الى مركز التفصيل اما بعد فانه لما اشهدنى العق حقائق العروف والكلمات الخ. The author says in it (fol. 4) that he was inspired with the present work, on one of the last days of Rabi' II., 805, during the morning prayer, in the mosque of Sikandar (?) at Zabid (in Yaman), when he was in the company of his Shaikh, Sharaf al-din Ismâ'll b. Ibrâhim b. 'Abd al-samad Jabarti,' who was then in his eighty-fourth year. He then speaks of the knowledge of the absolute essence (الوجود المطلق), which is also the chief object of the present work.

This work consists of thirty books or parts, each of which refers to one of the letters of the alphabet (* and I included). The introduction, مقدّمة (which begins on fol. 10v.), treats of the mysteries of the diacritical point, and forms also a separate book, of the diacritical point, and forms also a separate book, viz. 1. كتاب النقطة في النجلي الألهى من . -2. في حقيقة النقطة النقطة في النجلي الألهى من النقطة ومقتضياتها . -3. النقطة وشرونها في توحّد النقطة ومقتضياتها . -5. النقطة والنقطة السودة في منافع النقطة وكيف تزيد قرة . 8-; وتثنيها وتنقص في منافع النقطة وكيف تزيد قرة . 8-; وتثنيها وتنقص في الاسمة المختصة بالنقطة واوفاق تلك الاسمة . في الاسمة المختصة بالنقطة واوفاق تلك الاسمة .

Persian version of this work is mentioned in Stewart's Catal. 38. See regarding the author, Garcin de Tassy, Mém. sur la relig. musulm. 46 (according to the Ard'ish-i-Mahfil).

The author was a descendant of Khwajah Farid al-din 'Attar. He gives his name in the preface as follows (fol. 3v.): بایزید با خطیر الدین العطار, but it is given more accurately in the Persian version of this work (no. B 426), thus: بن خطیر الدین بن لطف بن خطیر الدین بایزید پارسا ابن خطیر الدین بایزید پارسا ابن خواجه فرید عطار.

The preface begins: " يلد ولم يولد. The author relates in it that he was for a long time the pupil of the great Shaikh Zuhûr (al-dîn) Ḥâjjî Ḥudûr, and subsequently retired for more than thirteen years (?) to the mountains of more than thirteen years (?) to the mountains of an ensuing meeting with his Shaikh, he offered it to him, and met with his highest approbation. He was then only twenty years of age (!). He went afterwards to Gujarât, where his work gained great popularity. At the request of many students, he made a new and better arranged edition of it,—the present one. He completed this A.H. 956, being then fifty years old.

The five parts (جوهر) of this work, which represent the gradual progress of the Suft, are enumerated in H. Kh. They are inscribed here, more fully, as follows:

Kh. ii. 22; Cat. Mus. Brit. 348; and A. von Kremer, Notice sur Sha'râny, Journ. Asiat. 1868, p. 258 sqq. Printed at Cairo A.H. 1278.

العمد لله الذى خلع على :The preface begins العمد لله الذى خلع انعامه فهم بذلك له حامدون وبعد فهذه عهود ومواثبتي الخ

The Shaikhs from whom these rules are derived are about 150 in number. Their lives are related in the author's والصوفية. Ten are mentioned as the most prominent, at the end of this work (fol. 178), viz. القادر الدشطوطي وصحمد بن عنان عنان وصحمد النير وصحمد السروى وصحمد النير ابر بكر وصحمد بن داود وصحمد الشناوى الاحدى ابر بكر وصحمد بن داود وصحمد الشناوى الاحدى على وعبد الحكيم بن مصلح المنزلاوى والحديدى على وعبد الحكيم بن مصلح المنزلاوى والحديدى البولسى على وصحمد المنزلاوى والمولسى وصحمد المنزلاوى وصحمد المنزلاوى والمولسى وصحمد والمولسى وصحمد وصحمد المنزلاوى وصحمد وصحم

The rules are of two kinds, either such as are contained explicitly in the religious law (الشريعة), and general, or such as are derived from the law indirectly, and peculiar to the author and his school. The author asserts the orthodoxy of his writings, and especially of the present work. He also mentions the incident, in consequence of which it had been suspected of heresy. He further states that he had already composed two works on the same subject, viz. المنافق في وجوب التحدث بنعمة الله على الطلاق which was appreciated by his followers, and الصدق والتحقيق في تغليس غالب المدعين للطريق, which was found rather too austere.

This work is divided into five chapters, each of which is inscribed عملة (اخرى) من العهود. Each rule is introduced by the words اخذ علينا العهود.

An Abridgment of Ibn Khallikan's Biographical Dictionary, made by his son Mosa, for his private use, during the years 701 and 702 a.m.

This is the author's rough copy, consisting originally of two volumes. The earlier portion of the first volume, however, is lost. It begins now with the eighteenth quire (کراسة), which has been insoribed. The first article is 'Alt b. Aflah (no. 487, ed. Wüstenfeld). It ends with the thirty-second quire, in the notice of Zamakhshari (ed. Wüstenfeld, no. 721), the last portion being also lost. The second volume (fol. 151), has a particular title, written by the author himself. It begins with the fourth fascicle of the original work (al-Mu'izz = no. 737, ed. Wüstenf.), and contains the rest of the book. It consists of twenty-three quires, but it has now several defects, especially in the twelfth and thirteenth quires; some leaves of the latter are also misplaced in binding.

The author states at the beginning of the second volume, that he began it on Sunday, 2nd Dhu'l-hijjah, 701, at Balbec, and he adds in the postscript (fol. 331v. أقلت أعنى كاتبها موسى بن أحد لطف الله به النخ he continued his work at Damascus, where he arrived from Balbec on Sunday, 20th Rabi' I., 702, and completed it on Sunday, 3rd Babi' II. of the same year. which the author added, in a second postscript, a short memoir of his father and an account of his own work.

On the title-page are the signatures of several recent owners and readers. One of these, 'Abd al-rahman Halabî, whose seal is also added, wrote the title to the first volume.

Ibrâhîm المخبرى, Ibn 'Aţâ Allah, Kastalânî, Ibn al-Jauzî, Ibn Kudâmah Mukaddasî, Abu'l-Laith Samarkandî, and Abu'l-'Abbâs Ahmad b. 'Alî, commonly called ابن الاطربايي (؟). The appendix (خاتمة) consists of two sections: 1. (fol. 292)

; فى المجواب عن انكار وقع من بعض الفقها المصنفين الخ 2. (fol. 303) : في بيان عقيدة المشايخ العارفين الخ في توحيد (fol. 316) ختام المالية المرابع المرابع المرحن.

II. Foll. 329-465. A supplement to the preceding work, containing two hundred stories, which mostly refer to 'Abd al-kâdir Jîlânî. The author terms it خلاصة المفاخر في اختصار مناقب الشيخ عبد القادر. It is mentioned, under a similar title, in H. Kh. iii. 166 sq.; and it seems to be also contained in Bibl. Sprenger. 357.

Begins: الشيخ الامام القدوة العالم العلامة العارف: Begins: بالله عفيف الدين عبد الله بن اسعد اليانعى اليمنى الشافعى نزيل العرمين الشريفين غفر الله له اما بعد حد الله الذي خضع السلطان عظمته كل شيء الخ. The author dwells subsequently on the approbation with which his earlier work had met from several Shaikhs, and speaks as follows of the present one (fol. 3300.): ثم انى رايت ان اردف الكتاب المذكور بمائتين من ألحكايات عربيات (الغريبات ... فانتقيت ذلك من نفيس الجواهر المودعة في مناقب تاج المفاخر... محيى الدين عبد القادر الخي

Each story is preceded by the name of the Shaikh on whose authority it is related (. عن الشبخ). The work concludes with a succession of sayings and traits of 'Abd al-kâdir (from fol. 438v. to end).

Plainly written by a different hand from no. I, and at a later date. Red lines round the pages.

كتاب طبقات الفقها الشافعية

Biographies of Shafi'i Divines, by Janal al-din Abu Muhammad 'Abd al-banin b. al-Ḥasan b. 'Alt' Kurashi Umawi Isna'i Shafi'i (d. A.H. 772), who finished the first copy on 21st Shawwal, 769, after he had begun his work already a little before A.H. 750. Of. P. Kh. iv. 143.

A circumstantial account of the work is given in the author's preface, which begins: الحمد لله معيت It was after composing his . الأحيا ومحيى الأموات i.o. a commentary on بالمهمات في شرح الرافعي والروضة the two standard works on the Shanite Law, that he undertook his present task. He collected his materials from numerous kindred works, and especially from the Tabakát of Ibn al-Salâh (d. A.H. 643) and Tiffis ('Omar b. Bundar, d. A.H. 672). The latter he incorporated wholly in his own work. Although he also terms it Tabakat, it is not arranged chronologically (or rather according to the generations, اعلى العصار, but alphabetically, each man being pinced under the initial of the name by which he is commonly known-(fol. 3) على حروف المعجم معتبرا اول حرف من اللفظ الذي حصل عنده التعريف والشهرة اسما كان او كنية او لقبا او نسبة او صفة.

Each chapter (or letter) is divided into two sections as stated by H. Kh., and the single articles of each section follow in chronological order, according to the dates of death. The last chapter (ع) concludes with a succession of Yamanis, who are mentioned in this place, according to the initial of their native country, although their common names are different. The last of them is Yâmiq.

The whole is preceded by special notices of Shafi'i and his immediate followers and disciples (المعاصرون الآخذون منه).

See regarding the dynasty in question, Johannsen, Hist. Jemanae, p. 156. No other copy of the present history is known. The author is not named at the beginning, but often in the course of the work. Cf. on him and his other works, H. Kh. ii. 159, and Catal. Lugd. ii. 173, 196.

which the author was contemporary, is said to be only partial (غن ايامنه). He, however, relates the death of al-Ashraf, which happened on 19th Rabi' I., 803, and concludes with an elegy on that prince.

An elegant and accurate copy, with vowel-points. Headings in larger characters, and often in red. Red dots mark stops. Ornaments have been added on the title-page and over the last lines, which latter have thereby become illegible. Slightly injured by damp and insects, especially in the latter portion. The end seems to be wanting.

اقصص الانبياء

A fabulous History of the Prophets who preceded Muhammad, by Abu'l-Hasan Muhammad b. 'Abdallah Kısâ'î. Cf. H. Kh. iii. 174; Cat. Bodl. ii. 113; Aumer, Hdss. Münch. 182; etc.

The author, who has sometimes been confounded with the celebrated grammarian 'Ali b. Hamzah Kisâ'i, is modern. His history comprises the following "Prophets": Âdam (fol. 11), Idris (fol. 42), Nûh (fol. 44), Hûd (fol. 54), Şâlih (fol. 62), Ibrâhîm (fol. 79), Ya'kûb and Yûsuf (fol. 101), Aiyûb (fol. 125), Shu'aib (fol. 136), Mûsa (fol. 143), Yûsha' (fol. 180), Ilyâs (fol. 182), al-Yasa' (fol. 188), Dâ'ûd (fol. 190), Sulaimân (fol. 215), Yûnus (fol. 256), Zakarîyâ, Maryam, and 'Îsa (fol. 265). This work is of frequent occurrence. The text of it appears to vary much in different MSS. Several titles are also given to it. H. Kh. mentions it under Lili and the oreation, which precedes the history of Adam (cf. H. Kh. ii 50, under Lil).

The exordium runs in this wor, as elsewhere; but the words, which immediately follow it vary here slightly from the Bodleian and Munich MSS. They are as follows (fol. 2): عن تحدم المبتدات في خلق الارضين والسموات وخلق الانس والجن واوائل احوال النبيين على قدر ما وقع الى من الخبارهم ووصل الى من النبائهم بعد ان اجتهدت فتخيرت ما قرب منها والغيت من ابعد منها فما وافق منها الحق فهو الذي قصدناه وما كان منها الحتلافا فائمة على من وضعة ووزرة على من ابتدعة وما توفيقي الا علية توكلت وهو حسبي ونعم الوكيل.

The history of Jesus includes eschatological matters, relating to his imminent return. Then follows an account of the events which happened after his ascension. It ends abruptly on fol. 281, where there is a lacuna. The rest of the MS. gives the history of St. George (جرجیس), and concludes as follows: وهذا

تاليف ابى الحسن على بن جعفر الشَّرْرَى قدّس الله سرة ونور قبرة وقبر كاتبه بمنه وكرمه.

An abridgment of an old work on Geography, of which two other copies are mentioned in Cat. Bibl. Sprenger. 2, and Cat. Mus. Brit. 182 (cf. Add. et Corr. 772). As is already stated there, the original work was written near the end of the reign of the Khalif al-Mu'tadid billah (d. A.H. 289); and Sprenger's assertion, that we have here an abstract of the Sale of Ibn al-Farin Hamadani (Abu Bakr Ahmad b. Muhammad b. Ishâk, who flourished at the end of the third century), is especially confirmed by a comparison of the passages quoted from that author in Yâkût's Dictionary. Cf. Wüstenfeld's edition, i. v, and the index, vi. 300; and also Sprenger's Post- und Reiserouten des Orients, p. xvii.

Sprenger is, however, wrong, in ascribing this abstract to one Sharet or Sharet; he read الشرى or الشرى by mistake, instead of الشرى and 'Alt b. Ja'far b. Ahmad Shaizart (from Shaizar in Syria) was merely the scribe, who, A.H. 431, wrote (كتب) the copy, from which the Cod. Sprenger. was taken. This appears from the colophon of the latter, which is given by Chwolson in a letter published in the Zeitschrift der Deutschen morgenl. Gesellschaft, xxii. 241. The present copy, too, must have been derived from the MS. of Shaizari, whose name, also spelt Shasri, is inscribed on it as the author of the book (see above). No mention is made of him in the British Museum MS. There is no positive proof that this abridgment was made by the author himself, but it is very probable.

It begins with some general aphorisms, as follows: قَالَ قال الفضل بن يحيى الناسُ اربع طبقات الخ. These are followed by some remarks of the author concerning his present task, which are to be found in Cat. Mus. Brit. 182 (نبذا كتابي النج). Sprenger and others have already observed that Ibn al-Fakih was more of a literary character, than an exact geographer. The plan of his work is, at least as far as the present abridgment goes, neither systematic nor in any way complete. It is, however, rich in details. After a few introductory chapters, on the formation of the earth (fol. 2), and on the seas (fol. 3), and a comparison between the Chinese and Indian nations, there comes a description of the Arabian peninsula (foll. 5v.-12). Next follow two literary digressions, viz. (fol. 12) and ,بابُ في تصريف الجد الى الهزل والهزل الى الجد (fol. 14) في مدح الغربه والغراب. After these, the author describes (fol. 17) Egypt; (fol. 24) al-Maghrib; (fol. 25) the Berber country إعراض البربر; (fol. 28) Syria and Palestine; (fol. 36, a special chapter on the rivalry between the people of Damascus and al-Basrah (fol. 39%.) Meso. (زانتخار الشاميين على البصريين potamia; (fol. 42) the Roman empire, with a digression ز في أنم البنا (fol. 49) and (fol. 49) في مدم البناء (fol. 47) (fol. 50v.) al-'Irâk, and especially (fol. 51) al-Kûfah, and (fol. 59) al-Başrah; (fol. 52, a special chapter, افتخار الكونيين على البصريين). Baghdad is not even mentioned.

On fol. 61v. begins the second part, preceded by a Basmalah, a list of contents, and a special introduction, commencing: وقد كنا قدمنا العُذر في اول الكتاب المج This part comprises the different provinces of Iran, with the adjacent countries, as follows: (fol. 63) Fârs; (fol. 66) Karmân, etc.; (fol. 67) Media المجبل, and especially Karmâsın. On foll. 70-85 the author gives a تم الاختصار والحمد لله رب: (Conclusion (fol. 109) العالمين وصلواته على نبيه محمد وآله اجمعين.

Written in a bold hand, with only occasional vowelpoints, and decidedly inferior to the British Museum copy. Dated A.H. 725. The colophon runs as follows:

كتبه حسين بن عبد الرحيم بن عبد الغنى في العشر
الارسط من شهر جمادى الارلى سنة خمس وعشرين
وسبع مائة.

Corrections by the original hand. Occasional marginal notes, and indications of the contents, by different hands.

To this are added (foll. 109v.-118) extracts from the concluding portion of the رَزِعَةُ الْمَشْتَالَ فَي احْتَرَالَ الْافَالِيّ or the Geography of Sharfr Idris? (Abu 'Abdallah Muhammad b. Muhammad b. 'Abdallah b. Idris, who wrote this work in Sicily, A.H. 548; of. Cat. Bodl. i. 192; ii. 535; and Reinaud, Aboulféda, Introd. oxiii).

The first of these extracts is inscribed حديث ردم عديث بن الكتب به and begins: ياجوج وماجوج وماجوج وماجوج . This is the famous account by Sallâm الترجمان of his visit to the Caucasus, under al-Wâthik billah. It is to be found in the ninth section of the sixth climate (=Part II. 416-418 of Jaubert's translation).

Then follows (fol. 111) the whole of the seventh climate, with the exception of the first section, s.e. the account of England, Scandinavia, Poland, Russia, and the regions further east, to the end of the work (=II. 425-440, Jaubert). It begins: أن في هذا الجزو مضمنا

It is immediately followed (fol. 115v.) by the eighth section of the sixth climate (II. 410, Jaubert).

The title of the book, which is given above, is followed by four lines in the same hand, written alternately in black and red, as follows: الكتاب المبارك العبد الفقير الى رجة ربه الراجى عفوة وغفرانه مختار المجدى الملكى الناصرى مقدم المماليك السلطانية كرمهم الله تعالى والخازندار بقلعة الكرك المحروس أثابه الله على انشائه وجعل الملائكة المقربين جندة واعوانه بمحمد واله الطيبين الطاهرين.

This note must have been transcribed, as well as the title, from the MS. from which this copy was made. When the chief Mamlûk and Khâzindâr, Mukhtâr, who appears to have written the latter, lived, and which of the several al-Malik al-Nâşirs he served, I have not been able to ascertain.

A concise Commentary on the Mu'allakat, ascribed to Abu'l-Hasan Muhammad b. Ahmad, commonly called IBN KAISÂN, the grammarian (d. probably A.H. 320). It is mentioned neither in the Fibrist (ed. Flügel, Ar), nor in H. Kh.

This commentary is intended for the use of beginners. It gives rather short explanations of obscure words, and a paraphrase of each verse. The former are introduced by التفسير, and the latter by المعنى. Special grammatical questions are occasionally discussed in an appendix, which the superficial reader is advised to skip.

العمد لله والصلوة على النبى :The preface begins محمد بن محمد بن محمد بن المحدد كيسان المحدود رحة المحتصرنا غرائب هذه القصائد السبح المشهورة الخ

The first scholium is introduced by the words: قال التعالي Tha alibit is accordingly supposed to have handed down the work from the author; he was born, however, thirty years after the death of the latter (A.H. 350).

Plainly written. Completed and collated on Thursday, 14th Rabi II., 1098, by Zain b. 'Abdallah Mukaibil.

former, and part of the introduction to the latter, poem. The commentary appears to be an abridgment of Tabrist's commentary. As in the latter, there follow here three other poems, which are not unfrequently added to the "Seven," viz.:—

a. Foll. 204-212. The Kasidah in — of 'Abid B. Al-Adras, which, as is also stated here, stands occasionally in the place of the Mu'allakah of al-Hârith. It is preceded by a historical introduction on the authority of Muhammad b. 'Amr Shaibani, which is also found in Tabrizi.'

b. Foll. 213-222. The Kastdah in S of AL-Nâ-BIGHAH, or no. 1 of the Diwân, as edited by H. Derenbourg (Paris, 1869). It was published by De Sacy in his Chrestomathie Arabe, vol. ii.

III. Foll. 238-270. A Commentary on the Kasidah المنت العيم , of al-Ḥusain b. 'Ali Tughra'i (d. about A.H. 514). This is an abridgment (تلخيص) of the commentary of Jamal al-din Muhammad b. Mûsa Damiri (d. A.H. 808). The author gives his name at the end as Muhammad B. Al-Khalil Kazarûni, of al-Aḥsā.

IV. Foll. 270-284. The celebrated Kneldah لامية , attributed to AL-SHANFARA. It was published by De Sacy, l.o.

II. Foll. 7-12. A short Commentary on an erotic Kasidah, called اليتيمة, or the Orphan; by 'Авр ал-нажк в. 'Авр' ал-гатіг Zubaini.

The Kaşidah begins:

اراك طروبًا والها كالمنيَّم تطوف باكناف السجاف المخيَّم It is stated at the beginning of the commentary, that the poem was called the Orphan, because the author of it was not known. It is also mentioned there that two verses of it are quoted in Hariri's preface to his Makamat. Now in the commentary on that work, these verses are attributed to 'Api B. AL-RIKA'. 'Amilt, a contemporary of Jarir," and to the same the whole Kasidah is ascribed in a note at the end of this MS. But the two verses given in the said commentary as those immediately preceding the quotation do not agree with the present text. It is probable, therefore, that the Kasidah is supposititious, and only framed on the metre and rhyme of the old verses found in Hariri, which have been put at the end of the composition.

III. Foll. 16-136. ZAUZANI'S Commentary on the Mu'allakat, with glosses.

The Mu'allakah of 'Amr stands here after that of 'Antarah. Some of the verses have been omitted; hence arose some confusion in the text (fol. 125).

On the few leaves which precede this piece are added a list of contents and various notes.

Written in Nasta lik, partly on red paper; the text of the poems in a large Naskh. This is the copy of one Muhammad Yûsuf. It was transcribed A.H. 1183, during the reign of Muhammad Shâh, at Dehli فالله التالية).

A concise Grammar, entitled (fol. 5v.) الناب . The author of it is not mentioned, but, according to the beginning, it appears to be identical with the work mentioned in H. Kh. v. 306, no. 11.vr. H. Kh. ascribes it first to Tâj al-din Isfara'int, but quotes subsequently the contradictory statement of a commentary, in which the author is named SHAMS AL-DÎN 'ABD AL-MUN'IM B. MUHAMMAD BAR-KUMÍNÍ. The latter statement is more probable, as H. Kh. evidently confounds the present treatise with Isfarâ'int's اللبائب, before mentioned (no. 894). This would appear from his general description of the latter work (وهو كتاب وجيز المخ), p. 303), which in fact is taken from the preface of the present treatise.1 The author of it cannot be later than the eighth century. صاحب دیوان) He dedicates his work to a Waztr الممالك), named Shams al-din. No other copy known.

This work is partly based upon Ibn al-Athtr's النهائية, above mentioned (no. 999). It consists of three parts, each of which has its own Hamdalah and conclusion. The first part (foll. 1-263), which goes as far as راء , is dated Pattan, 20th Ramadân (year omitted); the second (foll. 264-539, from راء), 11th Ramadân, 976; the third (foll. 540-867), Safar, 978. The work concludes with a مادة (foll. 867v.-894), on various subjects of the science of tradition, which was finished on 12th Rabi' I. (probably also A.H. 978). Then comes the preamble to an appendix (أيل), mentioned by H. Kh.), which latter is, however, not given.

Well written in Nasta lik. In the conclusions of the single parts the author is invariably styled شيخ صحمد ابن شيخ طاهر المحمدث العلامة الهندى شهرة الكجراتي مطلعا الفتنى مولدا.

PREFACE.

to make triplications above titles from these of the old trials. The head obtained by

EARLY in 1870 I was honoured by the Indian Government with the commission to prepare a Catalogue raisonné of the Arabic MSS. in the Library of the India Office. I was engaged on this task, in London, from April 1870 to July 1872. Unfortunately nearly double that time has been spent in carrying the work through the press.

The larger half of the MSS. belong to the great collection of Muhammadan MSS. of the East India House. This collection was formed from the libraries of Warren Hastings, Tippu Sultan, Richard Johnson, the Gairwar, Dr. Leyden, etc. It comprised above 3000 volumes, which were not even classed according to the different languages (Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Malay, etc.). In 1869 the Arabic portion was picked out, for the first time, by Dr. G. Hoffmann (now Professor in Kiel), who also drew up a list, in which the numbers were arranged according to subjects. The original numeration was left unaltered.

With the exception of the library of Tippu,—of which Major Charles Stewart had prepared a catalogue, whilst it was still in the College of Fort William,*—these Arabic MSS. have remained comparatively little known, and only one has, to my knowledge, been used for an edition.†

The remaining MSS. belong to the Bijapar collection, which consists almost entirely of Arabic books, only a few being Persian. A full account of the discovery of this collection, and of the transactions connected with its removal from Bijapar, may be found in the Bombay Government Records, No. XLI., New Series, pp. 210 sqq. It was once the Royal Library of the 'Adil-Shahs, but was subsequently removed to the Asar Mahall library of the 'Adil-Shahs, but was subsequently removed to the Asar Mahall library of the Prophet. There the library was still to be found in 1849, when the attention of the Government of Bombay was drawn to it by a report of Mr. H. B. E. (now Sir Bartle) Frere (see Bomb. Gov. Rec., l.c., pp. 215 sqq.). This gentleman also prevailed on a learned Muhammadan, named Hamíd Al-dín Hakím, to prepare a catalogue in Urdu, which was translated by Mr. Erskine (Bomb. Gov. Rec., l.c., pp. 221 sqq.). After being removed, in † 1442 Johnson (No. 382 of this Catalogue).

1851, to Satara, the whole collection was finally sent to London in 1853. Here it was examined, and a catalogue of it drawn up, in Arabic, by Mr. RIZKALLAH HASSOUN, in 1869. In order to distinguish these MSS. from those of the old stock, the letter B has been prefixed to their numbers.

These Bîjâpûr MSS. were, on the whole, in a sad condition. Damp, vermin, and habitual neglect, had combined to do their work of destruction on the treasures of the Asar Mahall. They were generally deprived of their bindings; most of them were defective and in disorder; some were mere bundles of rubbish. However, I did not spare time and trouble in ascertaining the doubtful fragments, in re-arranging the leaves, and in noting the sometimes numerous defects. Now that they have been duly bound and mended, these MSS. will, I hope, still be considered a valuable portion of the Library.

In most of these MSS. there is a note, stating the dates at which they were incorporated with the Library of Bîjâpûr; to which the names of the former owners are frequently added. I have usually quoted these statements at the foot of the single articles, with the abbreviation Btj. Libr. Subsequently to the taking of Bîjâpûr by Aurangzîb, A.H. 1097 (= A.D. 1686), the Library of the Asar Mahall was inspected by an officer of the latter, named Kâbil Khân. It was again surveyed, by order of Âṣaf Jâh, أو المنافع على المنافع

In the literary notes, I have referred, as far as possible, to Hâjjî Khalîfah's Bibliographical Dictionary, as edited by Fluegel (H. Kh.), and to the printed Catalogues of various collections; but I have avoided needless quotations.

A list of Addenda et Corrigenda which occurred to me, after the respective sheets were printed, will be found on a subsequent page.

In conclusion, I have to express my best thanks to Dr. Rosr, the Librarian of the India Office Library, who first conceived the plan of cataloguing all the collections under his charge; and to Professor Wm. Wright, for his kindness in reading a proof of each sheet as it passed through the press, in order to correct faults of style and idiom. That in doing so he also saved me from some more material errors need scarcely be said.

O. LOTH.
